VOLUME 2.

PANOLA, MISSISSIPPI, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1844.

NUMBER 41.

THE REGISTER.

Printed and published every SATURDAY at THREE DOLLARS in advance. Subscribers who do not pay in advance, will invariably be charged four dollars.

Advertisements inserted for one dollar per square (of ten lines or less,) for the first insertion, and fifty cents for each subsequent insertion. Advertisements of a personal nature will invariably be charged double price of ordinary advertisements.

EARLY ADVERTISING.—A deduction will be made to those who advertise by the year to a sufficient amount to make it for the interest of their patrons and others.

Advertisements out of the direct line of business of the advertiser will be charged for separately at the ordinary rates. Special rates, not alterable for the year, for advertising tea, coffee or less than ten dollars.

A number of candidates for county offices will be presented for five dollars, payment in advance, and State offices ten dollars. Election tickets will never be delivered till after the election.

Political circulars or communications of any kind, unless they are of interest to half price of ordinary advertisements and must be paid in advance.

Advertisements not marked with the number of lines will be continued till forbid, and any alterations made after insertion charged extra. Advertising patrons will favor us by handing their communications as early after our regular publication days as convenient—not later in any case than this day night.

All JOB-WORK must be paid for on delivery. Postage must be paid on all letters, or they will be returned to the sender.

Charleston, Mi., Aug. 12, 1844 23

STATE OF MISSISSIPPI:
George W. Johnson, Tallahatchie County, Clerk of said Court, April Term 1844.

Attachment for the sum of $214 93. This came the plaintiff by his attorney, and moves the court for an order of publication—and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the said Harlan is an absconding debtor, it is therefore considered by the court that the motion be sustained, and that publication of the pendency of this suit be made in the "Weekly Register," a newspaper published weekly in the town of Panola, for four successive weeks, requiring the said defendant Harlan to appear and give special bail and plead within the time limited by law for his appearance, or the estate so attached will be sold to satisfy the said plaintiff's demand and all costs and charges in this behalf expended.

A true copy from the minutes—done at office at Charleston, Mi., Ma. 30. 1844. Attest A. B. BETTS, Clerk. Bailey & Fisher, Attorneys for plaintiff. jun 1 12-4w

TO THE PATRONS OF THE REGISTER.
The undersigned having purchased of F. A. TYLER Esq. the Weekly Register Office, deem it their duty to address themselves to its Patrons and the public, in relation to the manner in which it will, in future, be conducted.

In thus assuming the high duty of conducting a public journal, they may, perhaps have presumed too much upon their abilities and the indulgence of the public; but they feel assured, that if application and unflinching attention, be the chief requisites to ensure the patronage of a liberal and enlightened public, the success of the Register will be certain.

The political aspect of the Register, will undergo no change. To the Whig party we belong; and in the ranks of that party, we intend to do battle, whether victory perch upon our standard, or defeat and ruin rage around us. We hold the principles of the Whig party to be the true principles of the Government—the principles handed down to us by the sages of '76.

Although the result of the recent contest has proved most disastrous to us—although our banner has trailed in the dust—although its stars and stripes have grown suddenly dim, and our armies routed and scattered, every where, yet, like valiant soldiers, we will snatch up our banner, and brush the dust from its folds; and rally for another contest.

The Register will not be devoted exclusively to Political intelligence. As "variety is the spice of life," we intend to amuse and delight our readers, while we shall at the same time publish what will both edify and instruct and as the publishers will confine their attention, exclusively to the business of conducting the paper, they may venture to promise their subscribers an interesting journal. For the next two years a political contest for the Presidency is not to be anticipated; and, during such time, we intend to strive by all means to please our patrons of both parties, always giving all a fair chance to be heard, excluding personalities, and giving offence to none.

They will take charge of the Register on the first of January, and those who are now patronizing it are respectfully requested to continue their patronage, under the assurance, that their money will not be spent in vain.

The Terms of the Register, will be $3 00 in advance.

Wm. S. KEITH, F. Y. ROCKETT. PANOLA Dec, 14, 1844.

A Boy Strangled.—A correspondent of the Mobile Advertiser, under date of the 14th instant, from Claiborne, Alabama, gives the details of the death of a lad named H. C. Stowe, under the most melancholy circumstances. He was in the daily habit of amusing himself by swinging on a rope suspended from the limb of a tree near the dwelling of his parents. The day on which he came to his death being rainy, he went to an out house by himself with the evident intention of indulging in his favorite amusement. No having rope enough to form a loop of sufficient size to admit his body, he untwisted the lower end, tying a knot in the same, after fastening the other to a joist above, and was probably attempting to balance himself in the opening through the "strands of the line, when the staging (an old trunk placed on end) he had erected to get within its reach gave way leaving him suspended by the neck, and thus he strangled to death before assistance could reach him, or even before he was discovered. He was eleven years and four months old, and was the youngest child of Stephen and Elizabeth Steele.—Nat. Int.

Buy some Matches.—"Will you buy some matches, sir?" said the voice of a boy, as we were seated in our sanctum in a mood contemplative, about eight o'clock a few nights ago.

No answer in a tone that might not have been altogether courteous or good natured, because the same question had often been asked us before, twenty times a day. This answer we gave without looking at the child, or giving a second thought to the matter.

Please buy some matches sir, said the youth; I'll give you five boxes for a bit.

But we have no use for them boy, or we would purchase of you.

Yet you will have use for them by-and-by, sir; and you don't know how much good even a pennyworth would do my poor mother and little sisters at home, just now. I haven't sold a box of matches to day. Please sir will you give me a dime for six boxes?"

The tones of the child's voice were so plaintive; his manner of speaking and his pale haggard countenance bore such evident marks of truthfulness and honesty, and his bearing was so manly that we could not if we had tried, to do otherwise than listen to his tale.

How many sisters have you? we asked.

Three sir.

Are they either of them able to assist your mother?

Oh, bless you, no sir! Mary is but seven years old, Pauline, only four, and little Kate can barely toddle across the floor. Mary, though takes care of Kate some of the time, and that saves poor mother some trouble.

And what, we asked does your mother do for your support?
